

The HF spectrum is a limited and precious resource.

Allowing it to be polluted with broadband noise from "Broadband Over Power Line" benefits a very small pool of users, who all have alternatives to BPL, at the cost of a much larger pool of users who depend on HF circuits for emergency and life-saving activities.

BPL should not be approved.

There is not enough benefit to offset the tremendous cost in the loss of usable HF spectrum.