

I strongly oppose the BPL/PLC and do not want to see the HF bands taken away from the radio amateurs. The HF spectrum is important and necessary for plenty of operations - eliminating this would be a severe tragedy. In addition, with broadband secondaries having trouble maintaining business, it would be wiser to invest time developing existing technologies (i.e - DSL, Cable, 2.4GHz Wireless, etc)

Once again, I strongly oppose the BPL/PLC