

I am opposed to Broadband Over Power Line due to the interference that it will produce on the HF spectrum.

As a shortwave listener and an amateur radio operator I feel that Broadband Over Power Line would cause undue interference and possible even the loss of HF communication in the times of an emergency.

Thank you