

I am opposed to the proposed Broadband Over Power Line system. I believe that this system would have devastating on many essential RF communications systems, including Public Service, Safety and Amateur Radio. Even existing broadband signals over coaxial cables cause interference problems that are difficult to locate and correct, and this is a shielded system. Unshielded BPL has the potential for generating a lot of harmful interference to essential and emergency communications systems.