

This effort poses a threat to hf radio services, and the transmitted data rate is not worth the problems it can cause.

This includes any hf frequencies used for national defense or FEMA.

As a member of the ARRL, we are opposed to the use of power lines until interference solutions to other services are assured.

We would like to see more study done and not have the FCC approve this right now.

Thank you.