

I am opposed to Broad Band communications over Power Lines, BPL, under Part 15 regulations. Tests in England and Japan have proven that it causes much more interference in the HF frequencies than its proponents admit. It will also make it difficult for amateur radio operations in any communications emergency to operate with efficiency. I suggest permission to continue testing be stopped before the damage is done to our HF spectrum.