

Allowing PLC to operate will inexorably destroy the ability of Amateur Radio Operators to effectively communicate using the HF spectrum. PLC is akin to placing a 200W Speaker at full volume next to someone using a stethoscope to hear a heartbeat. I sincerely hope the Commission will not allow the evolution of hi-speed data transfer to trample over the amateur community.