

I believe that the transmission of high frequency signals over power lines will cause interference with established radio communications, and as such should be prohibited.

Regards,
Bruce Raymond/ND8I