

Dear sirs;

I strongly object to the Broadband over Power Lines technology. Here we are plagued with so much powerline noise already and as an Amateur Radio Operator I have seen much of our band space disappear.

Please spend your time on getting the power companies to actually provide good service on the product we buy from them now.