

Re BPL Docket 03-104

I am a low power amateur radio enthusiast (N7XJ). I frequently make contacts across the nation and internationally using less than 1 watt radiated power. I am equipped for emergency communication using portable low power HF radios. I am concerned that BPL transmissions would create interference that would destroy my ability to make low power emergency contacts. The interference that this service would cause is not worth its potential benefit.

Robert D. Armstrong