

Use of Braodband over Power Lines in my area will likely casue intereference to my licensed amateur radio operations. Once BPL begins commercial interests who have invested heavily in the technology will not change, and amateurs, not having a great commercial lobby, will be forced to accept intereference. I am not in favor of this proposal.