

I am concerned that spurious radiation from such implementation would affect not only the amateur radio service in the HF (and, potentially, the UHF) part of the spectrum, but other utilities and functions, as well. If you must allow this, then I urge you to require that suitable "notches" (spectral masks) be included in the spec to ensure that such interference is minimized.

Thank you.

Mitchell K. Hobish, Ph.D.
AC7NC