

I have concerns with docket #03-104. This service could (would?) cause interference to existing HF services, including short-wave broadcasting. As a short-wave listener I believe, the less interference we have the better off we are. I live in an urban area, and various factors make listening to some short-wave broadcasts difficult at times. It would not be good to make the problem worse.

Thank you.