

I strongly urge that this proceeding be discarded as it poses several RFI problems to Amateur Radio. I use the HF bands and the BPL system would severely affect this portion of the spectrum. We amateurs still give of our time and resources voluntarily to assist in emergency communications, so amateur radio (and it's spectrum) must be protected as a valuable resource.