

Dear FCC commissioners,

I am very much against the plans for BPL. BPL is certain to cause high levels of interference in other bands to include Amateur Radio frequency allocations. There has been no proof shown that these interferences have been mitigated in away by advances in technology since the last time BPL was proposed. BPL should not allowed.

Regards,
Matt Thomas