

I strongly oppose the discussed legislation concerning the use of power lines as a source of transmission for broadband data transfer. The affect upon the radio amatuer and radio hobbyists would be devastating to much needed emergency communications in the event of disaster. Corporate greed must have a border, not to be crossed, public safety is at risk...