

I urge the Commission to carefully evaluate the effects of BPL on the amateur radio service. Power lines will effectively serve as antennas to radiate and cause interference to existing radio spectrum users, including public service/emergency communications activities of the amateur service. My understanding of the technology leads me to think it is inappropriate to implement it at this time.

Thank you.

Steve A. Courts K8JQ
PE and General Radiotelephone License