

I am a new Amateur Operator. The threat of interference to HF Amateur frequencies concerns me. I would rather the power levels be restricted to the current levels and not increased, which increases the interference threat. I can cause no harmful interference, neither should they.