

Broadband Over Power Line - I am not in favor of this mode of communication basis the interference that can be generated and carried from house to house. There are better methods to send these signals (e.g. satellite).