

I am worried that this service will cause interference on existing HF frequencies, especially shortwave. Please make sure that this does not happen. SW listening is very important to me and my family.

Regards, Bob