

The proposed broadband over power lines will cause unacceptable interference to amateur radio licensees on the HF bands. This will make more difficult any emergency communications we may need to do, as the noise level will tend to mask the station in distress or other ham stations involved in emergency or health and welfare traffic. (Health and welfare traffic is handled by hams to reduce loading on other emergency comms).