

Before further discussion of BPL, I suggest that extensive testing be carried out in far northern Canada where there are few radio-based services. Logic and science indicate that BPL will radiate radio waves and cause interference. here in Indianapolis, we already have far too many RFI generators in the power grid, making radio communications difficult. Adding BPL would likely shut us down altogether. Please consider the needs of the many before bowing to the needs of the greedy.