

I am opposed to BROADBAND OVER POWERLINES due to the obvious radio frequency interference that this mode will cause to vital emergency communications. As an Amateur Radio Operator (licensed 49 years), I have experienced considerable interference from normal power lines. Adding BROADBAND data to present powerlines will only make a bad situation much worse. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.