

Far more reseach and testing is needed to ensure harmful interference does not result to commercial and amateur broadcast services. We need to go very slowly on this one. My opinion is that it has the potential to be a disaster.