

The proposal for transmission over power lines of wideband information (BPL) is a disaster waiting to happen for many services but particularly for amateur radio. Interference will most certainly occur to both parties, the amateur and the subscriber. Please do not allow this to occur.