

in regard to 03-104. i am not in favor of the broadband over power line proposal. comments from other ham operators in europe have convinced me that the interference that is now there would be greatly magnified. i hold the callsign ku4cq, amateur extra. being very familiar with the interference i and others will not like being subjected to even more. thanks very much and 73s