

Please consider seriously - the recommendations put forth by ARRL, as well as other Amateur radio operators. This exercise appears to have not measured up on other scenarios. This is a quick note - to say that one more Amateur operator (KI4BCL) says thanks for all the provisioning and help the FCC has provided in the past - and asks that the FCC continue to protect the bands that have been allocated to Amateurs.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ken Hunter
KI4BCL