

As a licensed amateur operator, I feel that BPL would be detrimental to the amateur radio service.

Also I believe that many other services including government services would be adversely affected. It has also been shown that BPL has been disrupted by these services as well in other countries. I believe further work is necessary before BPL should be implemented in the United States.