

Insofar as the amateur radio service is threatened substantially by BPL ("Broadband Over Power Line"), the FCC should take caution to ensure it does not harm HF communications to and from hams. I have heard a recording of an Austrian BPL trial and the interference it creates is horrendous. PLEASE ensure that there will be NO INTERFERENCE with duly licensed amateur radio station here in the USA.

Thank you.

/s/
Joseph T. Malloy