

This system should be thoroughly investigated for its noise and interference properties. It should not be allowed to degrade the amateur radio or other services. I have been an amateur radio operator (K9ZT) for 62 years. With many years of experience as an accelerator physicist and electrical engineer my gut intuitive feeling is that the proposed system is a "NOGO." Thank you.