

I am surprised the the FCC is considering allowing BPL in the U.S. Not only is there substantial potential for harmful interference to the amateur service which provides emergency communications, but also for harmful interference to our national military and homeland security communications. I urge the FCC to reconsider its position on BPL.
will not discriminate