

I am concerned that the FCC is considering opening up the National Power Grid to "Broadband Over Power Lines (BPL)" It appears that there has been inadequate testing to determine interference to other services, namely the HF and VHF band of the Amateur Radio Service. I request that the FCC delay further action on this matter until suitable research and testing has been done.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Robert B Wright
ARS KB8APS