

I support the increase of power for the BPL system. Currently I am a ham radio operator and I am aware of the campaign by a few thousand hams to prevent millions of rural americans access to broadband Internet service. The Internet will serve millions more of business and people then ham radio ever will.