

My name is Bill Lawless, amateur call W5WRL. I am concerned that BPL will increase noise on the HF bands that we operate on. Power companies do a very bad job keeping the infrastructure they have now noise free. Allowing them BPL will only make a bad situation worse. I also question if it is really necessary to have another broadband solution. What will power companies offer that cannot be bought from a telco, cable company or satellite service provider.