

"Broadband over Power Line" would cause unacceptable levels of interference to the HF spectrum. Our current Broadband service providers currently can meet todays and future needs by Cable, DSL and satellite.