

I am writing to oppose BPL because of the interference it would cause to shortwave frequencies, especially amateur radio. I think more effort should be put into making the telephone and cable TV companies run fiber optic lines and making the internet available to everyone cheaply. Also satellite systems for internet should be encouraged and made cheap also.