

This would be detrimental to the Amateur Radio Service because it would use frequencies between 2 and 80 MHz, our amateur allocations could be affected if such systems are deployed. This has been proven by the ARRL and I ask you to not let this happen as "Ham Radio" is a proven asset in times on local or national emergency.