

I am strongly opposed to the utilization of power lines for communications (BPL). The RFI generated by such a system will render the entire HF spectrum unusable for communications.