

As an FCC commercial and Amateur Radio licensee for over 55 years I feel strongly that should this BPL proposal be implemented it will sound the death knell to Amateur Radio. Broadband is looking for a 'cheap' way to accomplish their ends, and has not proven that this can be accomplished WITHOUT sacrificing the Amateur Radio Service. Satellite, not land lines, is the way for them to go.