

I am an amateur Extra class operator, I have been licensed for nearly 50 years. I am quite concerned with the BPL being proposed at this time. Already the amateur service is faced with interference from all types of electronic sources. BPL will effectively ruin HF for communications. I am served by a small Electric Coop who doesnt have the expertise to solve simple RFI problems much less the problems caused by BPL. BPL will ruin the amateur service.