

The comments filed by the American Radio Relay League have my complete support. BPL is a serious threat to ALL current HF radio communications. It is worth noting that the Japanese have already decided that it is inappropriate to use this technology in the HF range. The FCC should reach the same conclusion.