

In regards to the proposed BPL please remember you will not only effect amateur radio operators, but people who short wave listeners, VHF TV reception in the weak signal areas and a lot of government and business band radio operators. Its a good idea but the benefits are not worth the damage it will do to those who use the airways.