

Gentlemen, From the information currently available, it would seem like BPL is going to produce an inordinate amount of RF pollution, and should not be initiated beyond the current testing cycle. Any radio service using HF frequencies will effectively be shut down by the use of BPL.

Where are the protections normally afforded the radio services?

Thanks for your kind attention.

Jim Homan