

I strongly object to any change in power line regulations under part 15 of the FCC rules. Tests have shown that considerable interference can be initiated by the broad band over power line considerations being proposed.

Yours Truly

Steve Gurley