

The demonstrated broadband over powerline has proved that the electrical emissions created by this unshielded power lines pollute the radio spectrum in such disruption that it makes communication impossible in certain frequencies. BPL must be stopped until technology is developed to eliminate these disruptions.