

Gentlemen; As a licensed Amateur Radio Operator (WA1MIU) I'm appalled that such a proposal for power companies to use the power lines to provide internet service is actually being considered!. The interference from such services has been proven to cause severe problems on all the low frequency Amateur Bands. I ask you to very carefully review the interference factor before making any decisions on allowing such power line internet services. Wayne D. Hall A.R.S. WA1MIU