

I would like the FCC to really think of what they are doing if they give broad band internet that will cause interference between 2 and 50 MHZ. I have been a Ham Radio Operator for a long time and have helped in many disasters and also an US Army MARS operator. I beg of you to not give us this noise interference to deal with. AB4VV Claude M. Peeler, Jr.