

Emergency communications provided by Amateur Radio operator in case of disasters will not be possible if BPL pollution is permitted. Universal broadband Internet access should not be allowed to endanger preservation of life and property which will surely happen if the HF frequencies are overwhelmed by RF pollution from BPL.