

Please do not approve Broadband Power Line transmissions. Radio signals degradation is already bad enough. Emergency communications as well as public service communications would be devastated by the interference caused by this mode of transmission.