

The HF interference shown to exist from broadband data over power lines will severely degrade amateur radio emergency communications capabilities. We already have two or three broadband options and don't need another! In addition, energy providers in California have proven their lack of responsibility. Don't give them more chances! Thank you for your consideration.